

PUB CRAWL BROOKLYN

February 13, 2013

Pub Crawl Brooklyn's review of The Black Hound in Manhattan's Battery Park City

A cocktail bar in Battery Park City, one block south of the World Financial Center at 301 South End Avenue. This part of town does not have many bars, so The Black Hound is a welcomed addition to the area. The main bar area greets patrons and then there's a small lounge area just beyond the main bar area. Friendly staff, tasty cocktails and a small-but-quality craftbeer selection make this place enjoyable.
